

$\text{♩} = 96$

Find Ourselves in You

Words and Music by Paxson Jeancake

G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

5                    G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

Un - to

VERSE

9                    G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

God our heav'ly Fa-ther, and through Christ your on - 1-y so - n. In the pow - er        of the Spir - it,        guid-ed by -    yo-ur word. From the heart in - to a life of        a-dor - a - tion,        and pra - ise. With con

13                  G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

17                  G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

21                  G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

fes - sion,        in sub - mis - sion,        ga -ther-ed in    yo-ur name,        to

CHORUS

25                  D                    A/C#                    Bm                    G

rise        and sing,        the won - der of your love,        to

29      D                    A/C#                    G                            Asus

lay                            our lives                            be - fore your throne a - bove;                            to

33      D                    A/C#                    Bm                            G

lift                            our gaze,                            be - hold a heav' nly view;                            to lose our- selves - in                    praise,                            and find our-selves in                    you.

37      D                    A/C#                    G                            Asus

41      A                    Asus                            D                            A/C#                            Bm

you.                            to rise                            and sing,                            the won-der of your

46      G                    D                            A/C#                    G                            Asus

love,                            to lay                            our lives                            be - fore your throne a - bove;                            to

51      D                    A/C#                    Bm                            G                            D

lift                            our gaze,                            be - hold a heav' nly view;                            lose our selves-in 56      A/C#                    G                    Asus                    A                    G

 praise,            and find our-selves in you.                    and find our-selves in

61      Asus                    A                    G                    D/F#                    Em

 you.

66      Asus                    G                    D/F#                    Em

 Un-to God our heav' nly Fa-ther, and through Christ your on - l-y son.

70      Asus                    G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

 In the pow - er of the Spir - it,            guided by - your word.            From the

75      G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

 heart in - to a life of ador - a - tion,            and pra - ise.            With con

79      G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

 fes - sion,            in sub - mis - sion,            ga - thered in yo - ur name,

83      A                    G                    D/F#                    Em                    Asus

repeat these four bars several times.....